

Can We Break Bread Together

For the Rural Ministries Conference Wartburg Seminary March 2002

Leigh Newton © 2002

1. Can we break bread to - geth - er can we use a com - mon plate? Can we
2. Will we share the fin - est feast - ing with the hun - gry from the street? Will we
3. Je - sus loved a cel - e - bra - tion with the sin - ners from the street; Je - sus 4. Do we know a God in - car - nate but for - get he loved to eat? Do we 5. Can we share the Ho - ly Sac - ra - ment, the bo - dy and the blood? Can we leave the fear be - hind as as we're eat - ing face to face? Can we break the bread, God giv - en, with the strang - ers whom we meet? Will we loved to sit at tab - le with the ones we would - n't meet; For the see him in a pal - ace far re - moved in roy - al feast? Do we trust each oth - er's learn - ing on the fin - er points of love? Can we learn to love our diff - 'renc - es for diff - 'renc - es a - bound, And learn to live like child - ren learn - ing how to share a - round? Will we feast would bind their jour - ney and the food was meant for fun And he leave him in a man - ger where he could - n't speak our name? Is he break the bread a - mong us, pass the wine for all to share? Can we look thru' oth - er wind - ows on this world? Chorus In the hung - er for the Spi - rit in our play? could - n't bear to hide his love a - way.

wel - come at our or - din - a - ry meal?
touch the love of Je - sus ev - 'ry - where?

meal there's hope for heal - ing, it hap - pens ev - 'ry day. Lord, lead us in - to hope as we break bread.